Dobbs Joins ANB Wealth Management Group in Dallas

Dallas, Texas (July 10, 2008)—American National Bank of Texas (ANB), one of the largest and oldest independent banks in Texas, recently announced that Randy Dobbs has joined the bank as financial advisor for the Dallas Central Banking Center.

“Randy has a strong financial services background in both banking and investments,” said Cheryl Sutter, director of Investment Services for ANB’s Wealth Management Group. “His experience as bank manager as well as business owner lends him a well-rounded perspective on the financial products that will best suit each of our Dallas area customers.”

Dobbs comes to ANB from Edward Jones, for whom he operated his own office in Mesquite since 2001. Prior to opening that office, he was with Fidelity Investments. Dobbs holds the distinction of having served as the youngest bank manager in Texas at the time for First Texas Savings.

“Randy has a proven track record in the investment and financial arenas,” said Lynn Prude, regional president for ANB Dallas County. “We are very excited to welcome him to the ANB family.”

Dobbs is based out of the Dallas Central Banking Center at 2725 Turtle Creek Blvd. The location, formerly Dallas National Bank, was acquired by ANB earlier this year. He began in his new position on March 31.
