

AMERICAN NATIONAL BANK OF TEXAS HIRES TALANA CHANG TO SERVE AS RELATIONSHIP BANKER AT ROCKWALL BANKING CENTER

Rockwall, Texas — May 21, 2010 — American National Bank of Texas (ANB), one of the oldest and largest community banks in Texas, today announced the addition of Talana Chang as relationship banker at its Rockwall banking center.

Chang comes to ANB from Sterling Bank in Rockwall, where she served as banking center manager. She brings 25 years of experience building relationships between customers, industry executives and bank management to her new position at ANB. In addition to her banking experience, Chang is actively involved in the Rockwall Area Chamber of Commerce.

“Talana’s leadership experience and banking expertise, combined with her knowledge of the Rockwall community make her an asset to our organization,” said Deb Miller, Rockwall County regional manager, ANB. “We are excited about the value that she will add to our dynamic team.”

As relationship banker, Chang will handle personal banking needs for new and current ANB customers. She will act as a point of personal contact to educate customers on banking services and answer questions about their financial needs.

“At ANB, we place a high value on relationships with our customers and our communities. Talana’s years of customer service expertise will be invaluable to our clients,” said Miller.
